WAR ON PIRATES. BRITISH STEAM LAUNCH COMMANDEERED. BLUEJACKETS INTERVENE. Six Junks Held Up and Ransacked.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Pakkai, Kongmoon, February 2.

As yet unconfirmed, a report has reached this port that one of H.M.'s West River flotilla has played an active part in the unceasing campaign against pirates in this part of the Canton River delta.

That a steam-launch flying the British flag and employed as consort to the Canton tow-boat had been "commandeered" and subsequently released through the intervention of a party of blue-jackets from the British gunboat at Pakkai, is the gist of the report to hand.

Details have not been forthcoming. It appears that the launch was boarded by some armed men who are alleged to have claimed military authority. It is not known if they were actually pirates. However, they surrendered possession when the sailors arrived.

Six junks travelling in company, with passengers and cargo, were held up at Tai Wong Po, near the boundary between the Heungshan and Sanwui districts and thoroughly ransacked.

In contrast to the North and East River districts, no political developments are expected here, but piracy is rampant and occurrences are being reported daily.

Following the sensational land attack by bandits on this port on China New Year Eve, when several Chinese were carried off for ransom and a robber was killed by his confederates, the small community has taken panic. Approximately seventy per cent. of the residents have fled and this prosperous outlet for Kongmoon appears desolately lonely.

A local resident who has returned from captivity in pirate hands states that the majority of victims are accommodated in close proximity to civilisation, e.g., on a large plot of land in the middle of Chu Lin village. Although they are practically under no restraint, none of the unfortunate people dares to attempt escape as they are surrounded by small communities friendly to or in collusion with the outlaws. Then, again, Kong Mei is notorious as the pirates' market, a good many of the merchants here having reputations of being alleged "fences" for robbers. It is felt that a combined armed expedition comprising units from the local Chinese military and the British Navy would do much good. The razing of these places to the ground would hamper the movements of the pirates to such an extent that they would migrate.

DR. SUN YAT-SEN.

HIS SON DUE AT PEKING
YESTERDAY.

Beyond giving the figures for temperature and pulse of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, there is little of interest in the vernacular papers this morning.

It has been reported that Mr. Sun Fo (Dr. Sun's son and ex-Mayor of Canton) and General Li Lieh-chan, former Chief of Staff to the Canton Military Government, arrived at Tsingtao on February 1, and were due in Peking yesterday.

Mrs. Liu Chung-oi, wife of ex-Governor Liu, together with Mr. T. V. Soong and Mr. Chan Sul-pak left Canton on Friday afternoon and proceeded North by s.s. "President Jefferson" on Saturday morning from Hongkong, says the "Canton Gazette." Mrs. Liu, who is an old friend of the family, decided to go to Peking in order to be with Mrs. Sun, on whom the strain has fallen most heavily by the illness of her husband.

RIVALS OUSTED.

LEUNG HUNG-KAI DIGS
HIMSELF IN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

PAKKAI, KONGMOON, February 2. General Leung Hung-kai, of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Cantonese Army and Director of the Sze Yap districts, has now finally established himself as the unchallenged "cock of the walk" in this part of the province.

He has gradually ousted all military detachments not directly under his banner.

Hitherto only two small batches were left at Sanwui City—under Commanders Tang Kong and Ng Chok-ll. The former has been given a civil appointment (magistrate of Sze Wui, West River) and the latter has been transferred to Heungshan.

Failing to keep pace with the incessant demands for funds by Canton, it is reported that the Sanwui magistrate, Chan Wing-kai, a Kuomintang member, will resign.

The two Houses of the Swiss Parliament, in a joint sitting, have elected Dr. Mury as President of the Confederation for 1925.

BEATEN TO DEATH Bogus Stamp Revenue Detective. COMPENSATION DEMANDED. INFURIATED CAPTAIN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

PAKKAI, KONGMOON, Feb. 2.

Shortly before China New Year a robber—one of several who tried to hold up a street by posing as stamp revenue detectives—was beaten to death at Sanwui city by a hostile crowd. The man was prepared for extreme violence because the tax was considered "vicious and robbery was the worst evil."

Deceased, as reported in the "China Mail" at the time, was subsequently identified as a non-commissioned officer in the army. The captain of his company has since marched his troops to the spot where the riot took place and blocked all progress pending the payment of substantial compensation.

It has been reported that the local Chamber of Commerce paraded with no less than $30,000 before the infuriated captain would withdraw.

(The tax referred to is a comparatively new imposition, necessitating the affixing of revenue stamps in

QUEER HOAX. PET MONKEY AS "ARMED ROBBER." FOUND UNDER A BED. Unexpected Thrill for Detectives.

Home papers arriving during the last fortnight have given much prominence to the "cat" burglar who has proved a terror to Mayfair residents. Not to be behind the times, Hongkong has stepped into line by having an even bigger thrill—a "monkey" armed robber.

Yesterday, the officials at the Central Police Station were summoned to a house in Paddy's Market where, so the report went, an armed robbery was in progress. A posse of detectives—Chinese in charge of Europeans—held in readiness to cope with serious crime of this class, dashed down along Hollywood Road, each man instinctively feeling for his revolver to make sure that it would work at the required moment.

An inmate of No. 7, Tung Street (first floor)—leading up from Queen's Road into Paddy's Market and part of the famous locality itself—had started the alarm by feverishly blowing a police whistle on the verandah. People in an opposite flat had the presence of mind to inquire what had happened, and the whistle-blower replied "armed robbers." As a result of this conversation in stage whispers, a telephone message was sent through to the Central Police Station and the detectives arrived post haste.

When, on entering the "danger zone" and on being informed that the robber was still making a noise under a bed in a cubicle, the police officers drew their revolvers. Receiving no answer to their challenge, the detectives surrounded the entrance to the cubicle, from which a terrific din was heard from the direction of a Chinese bed.

Detective-Sergeant Chan Pui (barracks sergeant at the Central Detective Office) rushed up to the bed and pulled the miscreant out. On seeing his capture for the first time, he shouted out to the occupants (who were busy giving a description of the robber they had seen) that he had captured a "miniature robber" and produced a pet monkey of the species usually seen in Hongkong.

Subsequently the monkey was traced to an adjoining medicine shop, whence it had escaped and climbed up into the cubicle. It had become entrapped in the motley array of pots and pans invariably found under a Chinese bed, and was kicking everything in its excitement to get free. Its efforts were put down as those of an "armed robber"—and that was how the fun started. Later the pet was returned to its owners, little the worse for the adventure, but ignorant of the fame thus achieved.

Sr W. Mitchell Thomson, Postmaster-General, in a written reply, gives the following details as a rough estimate of the work of the post office during the year ended March 31st:—Letters, 3,340,000,000; postcards 470,000,000; printed papers 1,615,000,000; news papers, 160,000,000.

OPIUM PROBLEM. AGREEMENT NOT YET IN SIGHT.

TRIBUTE TO INDIA.

(Reuter's Service.)

Geneva, February 2.

At the sub-Committee of the Opium Conference to-day, the Indian delegation submitted a detailed note re-stating the Indian position.

Mr. H. B. Clayton declared that India was the only producing country which signed The Hague Convention and carried it out. India had reduced the per capita consumption of opium to a figure as low as, or lower than, European countries, and well below the figure agreed to by the Committee of experts as permissible.

The discussion continues to-morrow.

Another sub-Committee approved of articles dealing with the establishment of a permanent Central Board of Control.

JAPANESE EFFORT.

The Japanese delegate, Mr. Sugimura actively endeavoured to conciliate the British-American views with reference to fixing the date on which the effective prohibition of the use of prepared opium in Far Eastern territories should commence, and on which an agreement was not reached.

Mr. Sugimura yesterday lengthily conferred with Viscount Cecil, and also with the French delegation.

Apparently, no side is disposed to yield up to the present, and pessimism therefore prevails again.

The outcome of to-morrow's Committee meeting is uncertain, but it is believed that Mr. Forster, the American Delegate, is anxious to save the fruits of the second Opium Conference.

business records. Detectives have made themselves obnoxious by their methods in insisting on examining receipt books in public. Yesterday the "China Mail's" Canton correspondent reported that the Canton (Chinese) Chamber of Commerce had petitioned the Civil Governor to rescind the tax.

CHARGES AGAINST BANISHEE.

STOLEN, AMMUNITION AND ARMS.

REVOLVER IDENTIFIED.

Before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, an unemployed seaman was charged with unlawful possession of a revolver and five rounds of ammunition, and with receiving the arms knowing them to have been stolen. A further charge of returning from banishment was also preferred against him.

The revolver found in the possession of the man was the one which was recently lost by Mr. Walter Webb, as stated in a Police report.

Mr. Webb, who is shortly leaving the Colony, gave formal evidence of the loss of the weapon.

The case was adjourned.

HOW YOU CAN WIN MOTOR CAR FREE. Further Facts About Great Popularity Campaign.

This is a Popularity Campaign. It is an effort on the part of the "China Mail" and "Sunday Herald" to discover who are the most popular people in the Colony.

How popular are you yourself? How popular is your best friend?

Are you afraid of the answer? If so, don't enter the Campaign.

If you are anxious to put the question to the test, enter the Campaign without delay!

You can either nominate yourself and work hard for your own election, or nominate a friend and help to gain his or her election, by securing the votes of all your friends as well as pledging your own vote.

And what about the prizes?

The prizes are an added incentive which will be given to those nominees having the largest number of votes at the close of the Campaign on April 4th. If you want a prize yourself, vote for yourself. If you want your best friend to win a prize, vote for him.

It sounds simple, doesn't it? It is simple. Just as simple as it sounds.

It is merely a question of seeing how many good friends you have, who are willing to work on your behalf, who are willing to vote for you or your nominee, and who are willing to see that their friends also vote on the official coupon.

THREE COUPONS.
Which brings us to the subject of the coupons.

On another page of this edition will be found three coupons. Cut them out! They are valuable!

The first coupon is the nomination coupon. You can either nominate yourself, or nominate anyone whom you choose. Each nomination coupon, providing that it is the first to be received for a nominee, will entitle him to 5,000 votes.

The second coupon is the daily vote coupon and will entitle the contestant to fifty votes.

The third coupon—and by far the most valuable—will entitle the contestant to receive 50,000 votes, providing that it is the first coupon which the contestant receives and providing also that it is accompanied by the first subscription for $36.00 whose votes are to be accredited to the contestant.

CALL AT OFFICE.

All those interested are requested to call at the office of the Campaign Department, Room "F" 34, Queen's Road, corner of Queen's Road and Wyndham Street. There the Campaign Manager and the Campaign Representatives are only too glad to give full explanations regarding the plan and to render all assistance possible. The Campaign Department is open every day except Saturday and Sunday, until 6 p.m., and on Saturday until 12.30 p.m.

SPECIAL VOTE OFFER.

During the first period of the Campaign and ending at 12 noon, February 21st, there will be a Special Ballot of 500,000 extra votes given for each total of $100.00 Subscription money turned in by a candidate.

This may be repeated as many times as a candidate turns in $100.00 in subscription money. This is in addition to all other votes given on subscriptions. It is positively the greatest vote offer of the Campaign and never again will subscriptions count so much as now. A little extra effort on the part of a candidate at this time will mean much toward winning a Motor Car or one of the other valuable prizes.

Start to-day so that your efforts may be crowned with Success. DO IT NOW.

PAYING THE PIPER.

While the public appears to be in entire agreement with the principal finding of the piracy
committee minority report,
namely that the onus of protecting British ships in the danger
zone devolves upon His Majesty's Navy, some dissent seems to exist
over the minor question of who shall bear the expense. The committee itself keeps an open mind
upon this point. Insisting that a system of naval patrols should be instituted at once, it remarks that if the Estimates for His Majesty's Navy do not permit of the immediate construction of these craft by the Navy, it is urged that the Hongkong Government might fittingly apply to this purpose the surplus shipping control funds as
yet unappropriated to any particular purpose, or if these are unavailable for the time being, in the interests of the general trade

of the Colony the Hongkong Government should accept responsibility. Doubtless the committee urged that the Hongkong Government should accept responsibility, because it wished to anticipate the possible argument that the required naval patrols could not be provided as
the Estimates for His Majesty's Navy were inadequate for the purpose. We do not believe that the committee urged that the Hongkong Government should accept responsibility because it felt that the Colony should bear
the expense of these naval patrols.
Obviously if the protection of British shipping in the danger zone is "essentially a duty of His Majesty's Navy," the cost must also be part of the Navy's responsibility and should be met
out of the Navy Estimates, which should be increased if they are not adequate for the purpose.
But since, taking a leaf from the piracy committee's book, it is wise to anticipate all arguments,
and since these naval patrols
simply must be provided, whoever bears the expense, we would say that if the Hongkong Government finds itself faced with the final necessity of accepting the responsibility, it should make a lump payment, say from the
surplus shipping control funds, as
advocated by the piracy committee, rather than institute a percentage levy which might in time become as big an evil as the military contribution. After all,
much as the Colony wishes to see piracy eradicated, it does not desire to burden itself with a
"naval contribution" which, once
imposed, might be excessively difficult to dislodge, and might remain, long after local waters
have become perfectly safe, an extremely unpleasant link with the past, a mild, but none the less exasperating, form of piracy
itself.

Boy Scouts Drive.

The "drive" for new members
and a greater interest in the Scout movement on the part of the general public, which was recently organised by the Acting Commissioner, Mr. C. Champkin,
would appear to have met with complete success. The January number of the Silver Wolf, (the organ of the local Scouts) recorded increases in numbers and the formation of a new troop and continued progress is referred to in the current issue. The bungalow which the Government has put at the disposal of the Boy Scouts' Association (in Lower Albert Road, near the P.W.D. offices) is to be fitted out with a reading and social room, a library, and a museum of handicraft and used as a Headquarters, writes the Commissioner in the letter which prefaces the magazine. The place is to be decorated and furnished

by the boys themselves, who will thus have a fine opportunity of displaying their ingenuity and skill. The intention is to have,
among other things, a weekly talk
to which will be invited people who can tell "good Scouting yarns or explain and practically demonstrate some feature, or other connected with proficiency badges." Numbers, too, have steadily increased, and another
new troop which has been added
to the Association brings the number up to twenty (as compared with twelve last year). The formation of yet another is foreshadowed by the Acting Commissioner, the fitting out of this with kilts and sporrans having been generously undertaken by Mr.
R. M. Dyer. "Already, I understand," writes Mr. Champkin,
"four boys are struggling gamely
with bagpipes, but we can't help that!" Arrangements are being made for the teaching of Scottish dances and Highland games; but,
first and foremost, is to come Scouting.

Why Not a Stadium?

A timely reminder is given by a correspondent that in the comments in the "China Mail" on the general popularity of football in the Colony, as demonstrated by the enormous crowd of spectators
at the interport match between Hongkong and Shanghai, little was said regarding the incapacity
of the ground to hold so many people. It is an open secret that thousands were unable to obtain seating accommodation, whilst it is well known that the open spaces
around the ground give wretched facilities for a proper view of the game. Moreover, there is another difficulty, namely, that of keeping the crowd within bounds. Ropes are utterly useless on such an important occasion, with the result that encroachments too
near the actual playing pitch occur
immediately the game commences.
But the powers that be are helpless. In 1923 the very commendable idea of a Stadium was proposed, and the project reached the stage of Articles of Association being drafted. Since then, however, nothing has been heard of
it. Has the scheme, like a great many more worthy projects, been buried for ever, or, are there still hopes of something practical being done in the matter? If the answer
be in the negative, it may be suggested that it is up to the Hongkong Football Association to get busy and endeavour to acquire a site that can be converted into a proper football ground capable of accommodating all who wish to view the game in a comfortable manner. The pessimists may be ready with the excuse that there is no such area available, but surely with the razing of Morrison Hill and the rearrangement of grounds foreshadowed when this is completed, something could be done. There is good reason for believing that the Government
was willing to assist in the project
for a Stadium, and doubtless it would be found sympathetic toward any suggestions that may now be advanced for an enclosed football field in keeping with the importance of the sport and with
the occasion of an interport match.
Let the Football Association get busy and see what actually can be done without any further delay.

eases was as under:—

cerebro spinal fever, one (Chinese).

CHEFOO NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Chefoo, January 22.
Meetings in connection with the Universal Week of Prayer
were held daily from January 5
to 10. A meeting for foreigners was held every afternoon during
the week, except Wednesday,
when there was a large mass
meeting of Chinese Christians.
The meetings were all well attended, the principal speakers being
the Revs. McOwan, McCrea, Elterich, Nippons and George
Andrew, sen.

The Chefoo Club's Christmas
party for the community children took place on January 7, when the kiddies had a great time, each guest receiving a suitable present
according to his or her age.

The Settlement again met the School at hockey on January 3,
when the latter won by 7 goals to
4. As the School were at one time leading by four goals to nil,
the Settlement side are to be congratulated on their fine rally
in the second half of the game.

The children's special service
Mission are now holding their usual winter series of meetings.
These commenced on January 10
and will continue till about January 23. No one who has been to one of these cheery gatherings can doubt their popularity with the children, there having been good attendances at all the meetings so far. On Saturday, January 17, the children who had been attending the meetings during the week had a C.S.S.M. Party, where all thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

For Japanese destroyers en route to Singtau paid us a short visit on January 3, leaving again
the next day.

Mr. B. S. Stevenson, of Messrs.
Butterfield and Swire, left here on January 1 for Shanghai en route
to Hankow on transfer. Mr.
Stevenson, during the time he has been in the port, has made himself very popular to all—and will be missed by both the Football and Hockey Clubs. Mr. Stevenson has been relieved by Mr.
Aken.

The annual general meeting of subscribers to our local International Committee took place on January 21, when there was a record attendance. Mr. A. H. Faers
called the meeting to order promptly at the half hour, and the Rev. Paul Abbott was voted to the chair; Mr. Albert Rouse
acting as Secretary to the meeting, and Mr. James Woo as interpreter. The Chairman, in proposing the passing of the past year's report and accounts, made an excellent speech. He referred to the agitation for a stricter control, and, if possible, elimination of the numerous bars and brothels which are opened up
during the summer months owing to the U.S. Asiatic Fleet visiting the Port. These are completely under the control of the Chinese authorities, but, as Mr. Abbott strongly emphasised, a strong
public opinion on the subject
ought to be able to considerably
influence them in deciding in favour of stricter supervision.

Mr. Abbott's address was received with applause, and on his motion being seconded by Mr.
Mortensen, the report and accounts were unanimously passed.
The ballot in connection with the electing of the new Committee was then declared as follows:—Foreign Members—
Messrs. G. Matsunaga, A. H.
Faers, C. W. Schmidt, J. S.
Graham, J. H. Clarke, and Dr. F.
Dille;—Chinese Members—
Messrs. M. S. Yu, James Woo,
C. A. Chun, T. S. Shun, C. A.
Song, and Y. F. Chang.

Several important matters of local interest were brought for-

PROSECUTION THAT FAILED.

A charge of maliciously
damaging the property of the Wong Nam tea-house at No. 365, Shanghai Street, Yaumati, on China New Year Day, and theft of $45, was preferred against a young Chinese, believed to be a member of the Restaurant Guild, before Mr.
E. W. Hamilton at the Kowloon
Magistracy yesterday.

"It was alleged by the prosecution
that the accused and some others
entered the tea-house and damaged property owing to business being carried on on New Year's Day contrary to the regulations of the guild."

The prosecution failed to substantiate the charge, and the accused, who was represented by Mr. C. A. S. Russ, was discharged.

ward and discussed. Among these was the request of the Captain of the Local Volunteer Fire Brigade that the meeting of subscribers should sanction a grant of $3,000 from the Committee's funds to be devoted to the expenses of the Fire Brigade during the coming year, and including a sum of $1,000 already owing by the Fire Brigade on account of equipment, etc., already bought.
A lively discussion ensued, but
Mr. A. R. Hogg, the Fire Brigade
Captain, eventually carried his motion. The grant was to include a sum to be paid to one of the insurance companies, which had agreed to take the risk of insuring the fifteen foreign members of the Brigade against possible accident, both temporary and permanent, and also to pay a fixed
sum down in case of death.

The meeting closed with the usual votes of thanks.

Since I last wrote news has been received of the death in Canada of Mr. M. S. Green, a former scholar of the C.I.M.
Schools here. Mr. Green, at the time he left China, about two and a half years ago, owing to developing tuberculosis, was working with Messrs. Reiss & Co. in Tientsin. I also regret to have to report the death at Chingwantao
of Miss Jean Enright, the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
J. A. Enright, of the Kailan Mining Administration, Chingwan-
tao. Miss Enright, who was only 12½ years of age, was a pupil of the C.I.M. Girls' School, and at the time of her death was spending her winter holidays
with her parents.

ALI BABA.

The broker needs a roundelay;
He is a sturdy wight
Who loves to roam the streets by day
And haunt the bar by night.
And whether shares have gone to "Hell,"
Or prices soar sky-high He'll tell you, "If you've got 'em, sell
And if you haven't, buy."

He acts upon the scriptural tip
Indeed he might do worse
While you relieve him of his scrip
He kindly takes your purse.
And all the charm, the honeyed wit
Wherewith the deal is blent
Is dirt cheap at the price of it—
One half of one per cent.

Besides he has a sporting flair
His energies he'll bend
To tracking to its furthest lair
The elusive dividend.
Should you start disagreeing,
He'll pledge his solemn word
The shares are just now being
Or else, have been transferred.

Let those who call it shady
To deal in shares take blame.
Truth is a naked lady,
Impervious to shame.
Though lowlier virtues may abound
Elsewhere, it's passing sweet
All day in Ice House Street,
To know true modesty is found

BOMBAY OUTRAGE.

ATTACK ON PROMINENT CITIZEN.

IMPORTANT ARREST.

(Reuter's Service.)

Bombay, February 2. The Indore Estates manager at Bombay, namely Malgan Kar, has been arrested in connection with the Malabar Hill case. He was remanded in custody after a preliminary hearing in camera.

[It was reported on January 13.—An outrage, the motive of which is unknown, was perpetrated in the Malabar Hill residential quarter yesterday evening, when a gang attacked a motor car containing Abdul Kadir Dawla, a wealthy citizen and a Mohammedan member of the Bombay Corporation, who was accompanied by a lady and his British manager. The firing attracted four British officers who rushed to the rescue. A lieutenant, although badly wounded, captured one of the assailants, while another, shooting off a revolver indiscriminately, to prevent pursuit, escaped. Abdul Kadir and the lady, who were seriously wounded, died of their wounds. The lieutenant and the British manager were admitted to hospital suffering from revolver and knife wounds.—Later messages stated that the object of the outrage by armed Pathans appears to have been the abduction of the woman, who is named Mumtaz Begum, and was originally attached to the Maharajah of Indore's durbar. She came to Bombay and met Abdul Kadir, and had refused offers to return to Indore. An application for police protection for Mumtaz Begum, on the ground that her life may be endangered when released from hospital, was granted. The Government of India sanctioned a reward of Rs. 10,000 for information, leading to the discovery of the instigators of the plot to kidnap Mumtaz Begum. Mumtaz Begum was taken into custody on January 14. He told the police that his wife was in possession of important documents relating to the Malabar Hill outrage on January 21. Reuter wired: Seven suspects have been arrested at Indore in connection with the Dawla murder case. They include a man said to be aide-de-camp to the Maharajah of Indore, a Sub-Inspector of the Indore Police, two state motor-drivers, a captain and another man serving in the Indore State Troops and a mounted policeman. The arrests in Bombay now total eight, including two step-uncles, and a step-aunt of Mumtaz Begum, whose mother has now arrived from Amritsar.]

REPARATION COMMISSION.

NEW BRITISH DELEGATE.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, February 2. His Majesty the King has approved of the appointment of Baron Blanesburgh as principal British delegate on the Reparation Commission in succession to Sir John Bradbury.

Baron Blanesburgh will continue to be Lord of Appeal.

[Baron Blanesburgh of Alloa (Sir Robert Younger) was Judge of the High Court of Justice from 1915 to 1919, and was a Lord Justice of Appeal from 1919 to 1923, in which latter year he was appointed a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary.]

AN OUTLAW CAMP.

FORESTS TO BE EXPLOITED BY SYNDICATE.

RETURNED EMIGRANTS' PLANS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

PAKKA, February 2. Known practically in the furthest corner of the Republic as the strongest and almost impenetrable outlaw camp in Kwang-sung, the Ku Tau Mountains are to be exploited in the near future by a syndicate of returned emigrants from America.

Abundant timber is to be found on these heights, and the syndicate proposes to open up the forests at Ku Tau and at the Yan Tak district.

With the rather impressive name of "Ng Tai Chow" (Five Great Contests), an iron steamer has been built for service between Ma-lao (Chau-Macao) and Hoi An (Sunning).

A bureau has been formed at Kongmoon to collect a tax on imports of cement. The revenue will be devoted to defraying expenses for the University (?)

FRENCH POLICY.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN HERRIOT.

MISSION TO VATICAN.

(Reuter's Service.)

Paris, February 2. In the course of the debate on the Foreign Estimates, the Chamber of Deputies approved by 314 votes to 250 (a majority of 64) of M. Herriot's policy in favour of the abolition of the Embassy at the Vatican, which was treated as a vote of confidence.

M. Herriot agreed to the inclusion in the Estimates of provision for a mission to the Vatican to represent Alsace-Lorraine, which has a special concordat to the Holy See.

[A Paris message of January 26 reported:—In the Chamber, M. Herriot stated that the Council of Ministers, which is the supreme tribunal of administrative law, was of opinion that the Franco-Vatican Concordat of 1801, which had been denounced by France in 1905, still applied to Alsace-Lorraine, where it was enforced by Germany after the war of 1870. The Government accepted this ruling, and consequently the Concordat would continue to be applied there. The Opposition is expected to make the most of the dilemma in which this ruling places M. Herriot, who is now faced with the paradoxical policy of withdrawing the all-France's Vatican representative and appointing a special representative for Alsace-Lorraine.]

RUN-RUNNING.

BRITISH VESSELS THE "CHIEF SINNERS."

WHAT FIGURES REVEAL.

(Reuter's American Service.)

Washington, February 2. The interesting fact is disclosed in a Department of Justice report that, of 332 foreign vessels identified by Government agents as engaged in rum-running last year, 307 flew the British flag.

The Department, however, expresses satisfaction at the increasing disposition of foreign Governments to discourage organised efforts in contravention of American laws.

GREEK PATRIARCH.

TURKISH EXPANSION OF EXPULSION.

(Reuter's Service.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 2. Interviewed regarding the Greek protest against the expulsion of the Greek Patriarch, the Commissar of Foreign Affairs said that the Government intended to expel every one subject to the operation of the Exchange Convention. The Greeks could still appoint a Patriarch who was exempt from the stipulations of the Convention. Russia once used the Patriarchate for political purposes, and Turkey was not going to allow a repetition.

ALLEGED THEFT.

STORY OF SEVEN KNITTING MACHINES.

TWO CHINESE CHARGED.

The alleged theft of seven knitting machines, valued at $360 each, from the Wai San Knitting Factory at Causeway Bay on January 16 was recalled at the Central Magistracy this morning when two Chinese were charged before Mr. J. K. Wood, and four of the machines were produced in Court.

Sub-Inspector Field, who prosecuted, stated that a man apparently concealed himself in the premises overnight, and got the machines out through the skylight into the alley way between the factory and the Jockey Club stables. On information received, witness proceeded to Canton, where, with the assistance of the Chief of Police, it was found that four of the machines had been sold to a dealer. The other three machines were not traced. The two accused, who are alleged to have travelled to Canton on the s.s. "Fatshan" on the night following the robbery and returned to Hongkong after the disposal of the machines, were later arrested in Yuen-tai.

The first accused pleaded not guilty.

The second accused tendered a plea of guilty, but denied that he actually stole the machines.

Both the accused were remanded until to-morrow morning.

A TRAGIC END.

SUICIDE OF EUROPEAN TAILOR.

VERDICT AT INQUEST.

A Coroner's enquiry into the death of Mr. Frederick Charles Higgins, tailor, Ice House Street, was held at the Central Magistracy yesterday afternoon. Mr. J. R. Wood sat as Coroner, and there was no jury.

As disclosed by the evidence, an Indian constable on duty on Kennedy Road at 7 a.m. on January 28 found Mr. Higgins lying on the road, near the black boulder, with blood coming from a wound in the head. He was unconscious. Clutched in his right hand was a revolver, two of the cartridges having been fired. Mr. Higgins died in the ambulance on the way to hospital.

Dr. C. W. McKenny stated in his evidence that death was due to fracture of the skull from bullet wounds, a shot, which entered in the right side, having gone through the head. It must have been fired from a short distance. The nature of the wound was consistent with the theory that it was self-inflicted.

Mr. William Philip Simpson, tailor, No. 32, Kennedy Road, testified to identifying the body of Mr. Higgins. Mr. Simpson spoke of the friendship which existed between him and the deceased. Since last September, Mr. Higgins, who lived with him, had scarcely worked at his trade, and appeared to be depressed. When witness saw him on Tuesday, the latter told him that he was "fed up" with things. Mr. Higgins kept a revolver and carried it about with him. Witness was at home on the night of January 27. At 1 a.m. he thought he heard Mr. Higgins returning home, but next morning found that his bed had not been slept in at all.

Mr. A. W. Hill, head bailiff of the Supreme Court, said that he took charge of the effects, and stock of Mr. Higgins on January 28. The assets comprised four pieces of cloth and the shop fittings, which he valued at $150. There was no cash. The liabilities amounted to about $3,000.

At the end of the evidence the Coroner said that the facts were perfectly clear and pointed to suicide. He would record a verdict to that effect.

DUTCH FILM.

"HOLLAND" SCREENED LAST NIGHT.

PROPAGANDA FILM.

Under the auspices of the Netherlands community in Hongkong, an interesting film, "Nederland," or "Holland," descriptive of that country, its people, customs and industries, etc., was screened at the Helena May Institute last night. The screening of this film is being carried out in various parts of the world, mainly for propaganda purposes, the expenses entailed being met generally by the local Dutch community wherever it is shown. The "Verenigde-Nederland in den Vreemde"—one whose object is to distribute reliable information about Holland and her Colonies, is responsible for the issue of the film, and to carry out their object the Association caused this typical Dutch film to be made for production in other countries.

Hongkong is the first place in this area of the Far East (Japan and China), to be favoured with the film, it being sent here by the Legation in Peking. It is proposed to screen it in the Colony at least three times, and one of these exhibitions will be set apart for the benefit of the children. It will afterward be despatched to Amoy, and thence to other parts of the Far East.

Amongst those present at the Helena May Institute last evening were H.E. the Governor (Sir Edward Stubbs, K.C.M.G.), who was accompanied by his Private Secretary (Mr. T. J. Gaisford-St. Lawrence), the Consul-General for the Netherlands (Mr. M. J. Quist), the Hon. Sir Claude and Lady Severn, the Hon. Sir Henry Pollock, K.C., and Lady Pollock, the Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp, C.B.E., K.C. (Attorney-General), Commodore Stirling and Mrs. Stirling, Sir Robert Ho Tung, and Mr. Ho Kwong.

The picture proved both informative and entertaining.

It is estimated that Christmas bonuses amounting to at least $40,000,000 (about $8,000,000) were distributed by Wall Street firms, but some statisticians place the figure at $75,000,000 (about $15,000,000). The latter figure, senior partner, and practically every worker in the financial district will share in what will be the greatest gift business has ever made to itself. Never before has Wall Street had so much means, or so much will, with which to reward its workers.

CHINESE Y.M.C.A.

SPLENDID RECORD OF WORK LAST YEAR.

SOCIAL AND PHYSICAL ASPECTS.

Those acquainted with the work of the Y.M.C.A. and its scarcely necessary to read reports of that organisation, but to many people statements and figures are essential to ascertaining some intelligence of what has been accomplished as well as of the objects sought. Secretary Tsui Mo Fat has just sent to the National Committee in Shanghai the 1924 report of the Chinese Young Men's Christian Association of Hongkong, from which are gleaned some interesting facts.

Comparing this report with that of previous years it is noticeable that the Y.M.C.A. here is becoming more and more an extensive society, promoting its various activities far beyond the limits of the 3,000 Hongkong men and boys who comprise its membership, and gradually increasing its influence for good in the community. Evidence of this is found in the facts that in 1924 there was an increase in the number of students in the Daily Vacation Bible Schools, an effort carried on for a month in the summer, which enrolled 1,600 poor boys and girls in eleven different volunteer teachers; that the Association started four schools of the Popular Education Movement, offering free to illiterates of all ages a four-months' course in the study of 1,000 common Chinese characters; that the Association helped to raise part of the large sum of money, that was given by many classes of people to help alleviate the misery of the flood sufferers in Kwangtung, that educational lectures on civics, thrift, health and other practical subjects were delivered on 56 occasions to as many groups totalling 12,900 people in nine different parts of the Colony; that over 900 boys, non-members of the Association, were given free instruction in aquatics, about 600 of them learning to swim in three lessons during a special campaign last June; that physical tests to ascertain height-weight-strength of grip-lung capacity facts were given to more than 3,000 boys; as well as active participation with other organisations in various leagues, evangelistic campaigns, industrial welfare work, distribution of educational and inspirational literature, and other efforts.

In promoting its social activities, the 1924 records show that 50,000 people attended 244 different entertainments and socials under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. In the dormitories for business men and students away from home, 288 were roomers, either temporarily or permanently.

In its day school, evening school, special Summer school, popular educational Schools, and educational clubs the Association enrolled 983 students during the year, thus making a large contribution to the educational status of the Colony.

Forty-two distinct groups in the study of standard Bible courses enrolled 289 students, whilst in the 98 meetings where Christian messages were presented a total of 18,500 people attended.

The physical equipment of the Association was also used to a large extent, 1,593 classes in the gymnasium and swimming pool and playground being conducted, enrolling 1,359 different men and boys (including students, young men, business men, servants, etc.) with a total attendance of over 76,000 for the year. A large number of the members evidently believe that "cleanliness is akin to Godliness," as the bath registers show that more than 30,000 baths were taken in the Association's shower rooms during 1924.

The total expense involved in conducting all departments of the Hongkong Chinese Y.M.C.A. last year was $97,449. To cover this, $91,286 was received through membership, educational, dormitory and other fees, the balance—$6,163—being raised by popular subscription in Hongkong. This sum does not, however, take into account the fact that a very large proportion of the work of the Y.M.C.A. of Hongkong is carried on by free-will helpers, without drawing on the budget, the report showing that 978 volunteer workers, men and boys, assisted in the conduct of much of the effort in all departments.

The officers of the Association, newly elected for 1925, are: President, Dr. Chau Wai-cheung; Vice-President, Dr. Yeung Shiu-chung; Honorary Secretary, Wong Oi-tong; Honorary Treasurer, Wong Kwok-shuen.

The Hongkong Young Men's Christian Association is one of over 9,000 Associations in 43 different countries, with a total membership of nearly two million men and boys, conducting welfare work with nearly every class of humanity.

The Hon. Mr. Montague Edey is lying very seriously ill at his residence. To-day's report states that his condition is unchanged.

A LIVE ISSUE.

APPEAL TO FULL COURT IN CHEQUES CASE.

CHIEF JUSTICE AND THE JURY.

The whole of this morning session of the Full Court was occupied by the hearing of the appeal of Mr. F. C. Jenkin on behalf of the Tai Wo firm (in respect of whose monies the Bank of East Asia are appealing for a re-trial; they having been awarded the judgment when the case was heard last year).

The only issue before the Court when Sir William Rees Davies gave his judgment last year, said Mr. Jenkin, was one which the Chief Justice refused to allow to go to the jury on the grounds that the signature which had been alleged to be genuine by the Bank had been proved to be not genuine and that counsel for the Bank was asking them to decide whether or not it had been put on with the connivance of Lau Shiyang, the principal in the Tai Wo firm. If it had, it would, of course, have been binding on the Bank; but His Lordship had taken that matter out of the jury's hands on the ground that it involved a grave charge of conspiracy and fraud against the Tai Wo firm.

They were there this morning, said Mr. Jenkin, more or less to judge the decision of one who had held the position of trial judge in the Colony for twelve years, and he (Mr. Jenkin) by reason of the case he represented was there to uphold his decision. He claimed that if any of the learned Judges making up the Full Court had been in the position of Sir William Rees Davies they would have felt bound to have adopted the same course.

It was towards the close of the morning's Session that Judge Sir Skinner Turner indicated to Mr. Jenkin that it was the view of the Court that the only point before them was whether or not there was a live issue before Sir William Rees Davies at the time that he directed the jury to return a verdict for the plaintiffs.

Mr. Jenkin had not completed his address on this point when the Court adjourned for the afternoon session.

Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., represents the Bank, being instructed by Messrs. Deacon, Harston and Shenton.

Mr. Jenkin is instructed by Messrs. Lo and Lo.

The cheques concerned are for $73,000.

The Full Court which is hearing the appeal consists of Sir Henry Skinner Turner from Shanghai, Sir Henry Cowper Gollan, Chief Justice of Hongkong, and Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz, Puisne Judge.

DEPORTED TO HONGKONG.

J. GRIMBLE RETURNS TO SHANGHAI.

Joseph Grimble was charged at H. M. Police Court, Shanghai, on January 27 with having returned to Shanghai after being deported to Hongkong by an order of the Supreme Court dated September 8, 1923.

Police evidence was that a warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused on September 4, 1924. He was found at the Isolation Hospital on October 20. At that time he was suffering from tuberculosis. The warrant was not executed and instructions were given that his arrest should be made on his discharge from hospital. On January 17, however, the accused left the hospital without the sanction of the authorities and was at large until his arrest was effected by the French police, when he was brought to the Central Police Station. He was taken back to the hospital where it was agreed by the doctor that accused was fit to appear in Court.

The Magistrate (Mr. King) said the only defence that accused was entitled to make was that he had permission to return to China from the Secretary of State. As that day was a holiday he ordered that the case be adjourned. In the meantime he allowed the accused to return to the Isolation Hospital.

PLAN FOR SUCCESS—YOU'LL WIN.

The old saying "Rome wasn't built in a day" is but another way of emphasizing the fact that you cannot climb the ladder of success in any undertaking in a few days' time, but in this day and age we find almost daily examples of the success that crowns a careful planning, consistently followed out. That is the secret of success in this great enterprise—a good plan—carefully followed out. Select your plan to-day and follow it through—it means VICTORY.

It makes no difference where a Contestant lives or where subscriptions are secured. It does not cost one cent to enter the race and win a prize. A member does not even need to be a subscriber to the paper.

All that is necessary to win one of the beautiful prizes is a desire for the prize, and the honour of winning it, and a willingness to devote a little time to calling on your friends and getting them to help you.

At the close of the Campaign the votes will be counted by judges appointed by the members themselves. Each member is requested to select some prominent person to act as a judge. The judges so appointed will take charge of the ballot box and carry it to a public place where the votes will be counted and the prizes awarded in full view of the public.

With a little effort and a few minutes' work each day one of these beautiful prizes may be yours. Take advantage of every special credit offer. Watch the stories that are published each day, as they will take up many interesting points regarding the Campaign.

Any questions or controversies that may arise are to be settled by the Campaign Manager and his decision shall be final and conclusive.

In accepting entry, members agree to abide by the conditions named. The Campaign Manager reserves the right to make any changes in the conditions necessary in the interests of the campaign, and contestants other than to reduce the number of prizes and the manner in which they are to be given.

After having been the subject of litigation which has occupied the attention of all from Peking to Washington, the Customs having waived their claim on her and the American Government having granted permission for a change of registry, a local company consisting of English, American and Chinese capitalists will put her on a run between Shanghai and the Malay plantations.

Much interest has been aroused in Northern theatrical circles over the forthcoming production of "The Black Rat," a play whose author is an old China hand. The piece is being presented by the Amateur Dramatic Society in Tientsin, with the following cast:—Mrs. Tisdall, Mr. R. A. Williams, Mrs. Bell, Miss Jean Bidwell, Mr. Farquhar, Mr. Gotsch, Mr. Dupree, Mr. Twyford Thomas, Mr. F. S. Jameson, Mr. Williams and Mr. Bell Irving. Apparently this is the first time the Tientsin A.D.S. has ever performed a play written by a resident of China, although in Peking an opera by a Russian musician, with libretto by Carol Lunt, is about to be produced.

GREAT AIR PORT.

VOYAGES TO ALL PARTS OF THE EMPIRE.

MAMMOTH SKY LINER.

Great Britain, after failures, half-hearted efforts, and long delay, has at last set to work in earnest to establish the world's greatest airship service.

Cardington, a village three miles from Bedford, is destined in the space of a few short years to be the largest air port in any continent. It will be the departure and arrival port of the Empire airship mail.

Mammoth airships, each carrying a hundred passengers and many tons of mails, will sail from Cardington on their separate services to the United States and Canada, and to South Africa.

Work has already been begun on the conversion of Cardington air station, on the preliminaries for the construction of a skyliner larger than anything that has ever taken the air.

Air Vice-Marshal Sir Sefton Branker, Director of Civil Aviation, is to start to-morrow on an aeroplane flight to India in order to survey the possibilities of a route via Germany, Poland, Rumania, Turkey, Syria, and Mesopotamia, and to confer with the Indian Government regarding the establishment of the airship port in that country.

REMARKABLE FIGURES. Cardington, November 18.—Sir Samuel Hoare, the Air Minister, and Sir Philip Sassoon, the Parliamentary Under-Secretary, visited Cardington to-day to inspect the air station and its engineering shops.

"It is a matter of great satisfaction," said Sir Samuel Hoare to me, "that we are attempting seriously to develop airships. The importance of the developments which we are undertaking cannot be over-emphasised."

"There have been disasters to airships in the past, and we mean to make the fullest use of the experience gained from those unfortunate events. We mean to do everything humanly possible to eliminate danger in connection with airships."

Full details have been supplied to me of the new airship which is to be built at Cardington by the Air Ministry—H.M.A.S. R 101. She will be designed for a dual purpose—as a passenger carrier and also for war service if emergency calls. She will be the first airship—her main hull being formed of stainless steel and her seven great propellers being also of steel to resist tropical conditions.

The following figures give some idea of the tremendous size of R 101:

Length—720 feet.
Height—140 feet.
Diameter—130 feet.
Number of engines—seven.
Horse-power for each engine—600.
Total horse-power—4,200.

Speed—seventy miles an hour.
Capacity—5,000,000 cubic feet of gas.

R 101 will consume no fewer than 1,750 lbs. of fuel an hour in her heavy gas engines, and she will be able to lift a weight of 150 tons, of which seventy-five tons will be available for fuel, water ballast, goods, and passengers. On a commercial run of 2,500 miles to Egypt twenty tons will be available for passengers and mails.

Before the building of the new ship can be begun it will be necessary to enlarge the existing airship shed at Cardington from 700 feet long to 812 feet, and to raise it in height from 110 feet to 157 feet. It will then be the largest building in the British Empire.

A contract for this work has been given by the Air Ministry.

The assembling of the new airship will be started in the early summer of next year, and she will probably be finished and ready for her preliminary trials by the end of 1926. She will make her first trip to India in the early part of 1927, calling at Egypt on the way.

A gigantic mooring mast, 180 feet high—that is, taller than the Nelson column in Trafalgar-square—is one of the first essentials to the air port which will be built at Cardington early next year. It will be a giant structure of lattice steel, carrying lifts for the loading of passengers and cargo aboard the air liners, winding gear for hauling a ship to her rigid anchorage at the masthead, and pipe lines for refuelling and watering a ship.

Passengers will go aboard R 101 or her sister vessels from a circular rail platform at the masthead, crossing from mast to

MYSTERY LETTER.

A DEAD MAN'S SECRET.

STRANGE INQUEST STORY.

"There appears to be more behind this case than I can get at," said Mr. Oswald, the West London Coroner, at a Chelsea inquest after he had read a letter written by a dead man.

"A peculiar letter, so incoherent that it would afford little clue. He talked of the Hobbs case in connection with 'Mr. A.' and he talked of money," was the Coroner's comment on the letter.

The dead man was John Samuel Hocking (40), a commission agent of Sydney Street, Chelsea, who was found with his head in a gas oven.

The letter, which was read by the Coroner, could only be partly deciphered, and ran as follows:

To the English lady—This is impossible to explain. Filthy, so cruel, awful, so terrible.

The villain really hath. . . . Re case of Mrs. J. I do assure the whole thing a frame-up. It is impossible to surmise unless I would not agree. . . . I know nothing of this affair until I came back and repaid Hobbs for loan, also paid by the present.

I cannot conceive the filth of the whole affair. . . . Only that of gibe and filth. I assure you that I always pay my liabilities to every one. This rotten affair, the broken-hearted villain. The whole affair is rotten.

Mrs. Hocking, the widow, replying to the Coroner, said she did not know whether her husband had been losing money of late, but he appeared worried. She discovered him lying in the gully with his head in the gas oven.

The Coroner remarked that he supposed the letter referred to the Hobbs case. He asked the widow whether her husband knew Hobbs.

Mrs. Hocking—I do not know. . . . Ethel Fountain Gilmore, formerly the wife of a man of independent means, said that she lived at the same address. She did not notice anything unusual in Mr. Hocking's manner, but, as he used to pace about his room at night, she assumed that he was a victim of insomnia.

A verdict of "Suicide while of unsound mind" was returned.

airship by way of a covered gangway.

When R 101 is used for commercial purposes she will have accommodation for one hundred passengers, sleeping in cosy, two-birth cabins, and with dining, recreation, and smoking quarters on a separate deck. Her crew will number four officers and fifty men.

Normally the ship will operate on all her journeys from the mooring mast, only going into dock in the shed when any repair is necessary.

A mooring mast similar to that at Cardington is to be put up on ground already selected in Egypt and another in India. There will be a terminal repair shed also in India.

The following will be the journey times of R 101 on her Empire flights:

Egypt . . . 21 days.
India . . . 5 to 6 days.
Australia . . . 10 days.
Cape Town . . . 51 days.
Canton . . . 3 days.

It will be possible to cover the return journey from New York to Cardington in forty-eight hours. When R 101, for any purpose, is on duty with the British fleet she will be able to remain at sea for three weeks if necessary.

The plan for the landing of airship passengers at Cardington will be so perfected that, I am assured, a ship will be brought alongside the mast and the passengers disembarked within ten minutes after the ship comes above the aerodrome and drops her steel mooring cable from a height of 1,000 feet.

Careful experimental work is being carried out to ensure that R 101 and her sister ship R 100, which is to be built by Messrs. Vickers at Howden, in York-shire—will be completely safe for passengers and crew; as safe, indeed, as the ordinary express train.

Two existing British airships—R 33 at Cardington and R 36 at Farnham, Norfolk—are now being reconditioned and refitted for flights next year to carry out aerodynamic tests.

R 36 is to fly to Egypt in the summer of next year in order that continuous records may be obtained of metal stresses in long-distance flights in tropical countries.

"A WOMAN OF PARIS."

THE CORONET'S BIG PICTURE.

In the filming of "A Woman of Paris," now being shown to bumper houses at the Coronet, his first serious picture, Charles Chaplin has paid particular attention to the personnel of the cast and his production staff, extreme care in this direction being more vital than usual because of the fact that Mr. Chaplin does not personally appear in the picture, though it has been written and directed by him.

In selecting Edna Purviance for the featured role, Mr. Chaplin was not only rewarding that sterling actress for her work with him through eight years of making comedy pictures, but he is capitalising an innate dramatic ability that Miss Purviance had more than once demonstrated in the years of their association.

As Pierre Revel, the French epicurean, gentleman, and pagan, Adolphe Menjou was decided upon after a thorough canvass of the entire field of actors of this type. Mr. Menjou is not only perfectly suited to the part as to type, but is a Frenchman by descent, and the Continental manner required in the part is a definite characteristic.

Mr. Menjou, who was born in Pau, France, went to America at the age of four. He is a graduate of Cornell University, where he started his dramatic career. During the war he returned to France to enlist in the French army, and fought there with many honours. After the war he returned to America, and began his work in pictures in California.

"THE MASTER MIND."

AT THE QUEEN'S THEATRE.

Students of the drama, generally conceded to be one of the most fascinating of all arts, will be given an unusual opportunity to "study new phases of the merely screen-odd 'exact science' of visualization."

of conveying the workings of a human mind without the aid of words, when Lionel Barrymore is shown in "The Master Mind," his latest photoplay creation, which will be exhibited at the Queen's Theatre to-day.

Until the advent of the silver screen as a medium for imparting entertaining knowledge of life, the study of the histrionic art was considerably limited, for it encompassed only the things which could be done on a stage of comparatively small dimensions. Now, thanks to the motion picture camera, the locale of a dramatic or comedy situation is almost unlimited and simultaneously is thus provided, possibilities of expanded action such as goes a long distance in augmenting the importance of make-believe.

The "Manilla Vaudeville Co." is the added attraction at this theatre, and during the run of the picture "The Master Mind" it will give an entirely new programme of songs and comedy.

Sir John Jordan writes in a Home paper:—The death of Mr. H. F. Brady makes the first breach in a batch of four student interpreters who went out to China in the year 1876, and whose periods of active service in that country amounted in the aggregate to 150 years. A thoroughly genial and lovable Irishman, Brady was the life and soul of our party during our student days in Peking, and won for himself a place in the affectionate regard of his colleagues, which lasted throughout life. It has been given to few of us to make so many and such staunch friendships in China and to retain them fresh during years of retirement at home. As a Consul Mr. Brady did much quiet and useful work in promoting improvements at the various ports at which he was stationed, and at least one monument of an enduring nature will serve to perpetuate his memory—the acquisition of the site of Kuling—in which, as H.B.M. Consul at Kuling, he took an active and decisive part. He and I have been near neighbours in this London suburb of Putney for the past four years, and our relations have been as intimate as they were in our far-off student days. To his widow, a sister of Sir Walter Hillier, and to his son, a solicitor in London, all who remember them in China will, I feel sure, extend their sincere sympathy in their sudden bereavement.

MAIL VAN AND TRAMCAR.

COLLISION CAUSED BY COOLIE TRUCK.

A collision occurred at noon yesterday between a Post Office motor mail van and a tramcar at the bend where the road turns into Praya East from Arsenal Street. The accident is attributed to a coolie truck trying to cut in between the van and the tramcar.

The front glass screen of the tramcar was smashed, and the mail van sustained damage to the roof and paint work.

The accident fortunately was not attended with any injury to the drivers of the vehicles or the passengers.

It is generally conceded, writes a correspondent, that the hydra exists only in Greek mythology as a monster, but the recent flood brought to light a snake with two heads which was found in a house on Owen Road occupied by Mr. H. Eber, of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank. It appears that the water rose to such a height in this locality that scarcely a house was immune from a visitation by rats and snakes of all kinds. It is a pity though that the double-headed snake was not kept for examination after it had been killed, for this is perhaps the first and only instance of such a reptile having been seen in these parts.

The City of Paris has just opened a competition, with 50,000 francs in prizes, in order to find the best means of preventing all the saucapans in the kitchen-frying whenever a heavy lorry or an omnibus passes in the street. It is hoped to discover some kind of shock absorber, whose use would presumably be made obligatory, in order to reduce the vibration on the road, on the adjoining houses, and on the passengers and goods carried by the vehicles themselves. One is tempted to think that if such a device could have been invented, it would not have required the bait now offered by the City of Paris to bring it to light; but no doubt it is worth trying.

No claims will be admitted after the Goods have left the Godowns, and all Goods remaining undelivered after the 9th inst. will be subject to rent.

All claims against the steamer must be presented to the Underigned on or before the 19th inst. or they will not be recognised.

FIGURES IN THE NEWS SPOTLIGHT.

Mrs. LEONARD KIP RHINELANDER & ROBERT R. BRINDEL

Mrs. Leonard Kip Rhinelander, whose marriage to a multi-millionaire New York social favourite created a sensation, has asked for $50 a month as alimony and $1,000 for counsel fees from her husband whose annulment action has been filed at White Plains. She informed the Supreme Court that birth records for which she has sent to England and the West Indies will prove that she comes of white folk, contrary to Rhinelander's assertion that she is colored. Robert Brindel, head of the Building Trades Council, who served a prison term of almost four years because of the alleged extortion of $200,000 from builders, has been released on parole from prison, but faces a charge of falsifying his income tax return. He was arrested as he stepped out of prison, but was allowed bail and was permitted to go to his home. Lieutenant Oakley Kelly, first cross-country flier, who dropped from sight with Lieutenant H. C. Miller on a trip from Vancouver to San Francisco, has turned up safely at Crissy Field, California, with the explanation that he and his companion were forced to land through engine trouble. Fear had been felt for the flier's safety. Pessimistic and hopeful by turns, Norman Selby—"Kid" McCoy in the heyday of his amazing pugilistic career—awaited the decision of the jury which had heard evidence in the charge preferred against him of murdering Mrs. Theresa Moss. Word that the jury stood 11 to 1—the dissenter being a woman—for acquittal, heartened McCoy.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.ENGLAND v. THE REST.

The keenly anticipated trial

match between England and the Rest was played at Twickenham

on December 20. The result was a disappointment, some of the players who have so ably represented England in the past failing to uphold their reputations. This was so evident that changes were made at half time, some of the Rest men, taking places of others

on the all England team. The final score read 20 to 14 in favour of the Rest. As can well be imagined, this has added to the difficulties of the Selection Committee, it being obvious that big

changes would be necessary.

Rugby, like other pastimes, provide seasons when a National team seems to fit like the parts of a machine. Then comes a change,

the retirement of a few players,

or the loss of form in others,

throwing the whole side out of gear.

It is much to be feared that the English XV. of this season will not prove quite up to the high standard of the sides which have been so successful in the International series of recent years.

Until December 20, many good judges thought England would give New Zealand a very hard

fight for supremacy, but now

there will be few real judges who can honestly think there is any likelihood of the All Blacks losing their unbeaten record. One cannot but wish "the powers that be"

had taken steps to find out England's best side some weeks

before, so that it would have been possible to arrange a few trial

matches and so improve the

LAWN TENNIS.CLIPPING THE WINGS OF*PLAYER-WRITERS.

The decision of the executive committee of the United States

Lawn Tennis Association to clip

the wings of the "player-writer"

fraternity by making it practically

impossible for them to market

their literary wares will be hailed

with delight, not only by the great body of amateur tennis players, but

by the sports writers as well, says

a contributor to a Manila paper.

To the latter this constant flood of

"signed stuff" by men who thus

give daily proof that as writers they are great tennis players has long been looked upon as a menace, particularly because it undermined their means of making a living, but mostly because it cheapened their profession.

Witness the signed stuff by such noted writers as Babe Ruth and Jack Dempsey that appears regularly in certain newspapers. Noted writers, indeed! The truth is that it is either one of those birds, particularly Dempsey, tried to so much as

write his own name the mental

strain involved would leave him

weak and helpless for several days.

In the face of this we have whole

columns of guff under their signatures. Why otherwise intelligent editors will persist in foisting this kind of literary slop on their readers

always has been a mystery, and the only plausible explanation is that these editors, like a great many of their readers, have become so overwhelmed by the free advertising

lavished upon these athletes that they have come to regard them as

super-men, and to believe that the very mention of their names is sufficient to send the reading public

into trances of delight.

There is no doubt that the tennis

player who writes for pay is just as much a professional as the man

who gives instruction in the game,

or plays for cash considerations.

Tilden prattles about writing for the love of the game, and because he wants to increase interest in tennis.

He does nothing of the kind. The reason he writes for the newspapers

is because the newspapers pay him

to do so, and no amount of alibi

on his part will explain that truth

away. Therefore, Mr. Tilden should either quit writing tennis for

money, or quit playing tennis as an amateur.
